The screenshot shows a user interface for sending a message. At the top, there is a navigation bar with icons for Home, Profile, Notifications (with 6 notifications), Address Book, Feedback, Help, and Logout. A large yellow arrow points down from the Notifications icon to the main content area.

The main content area is enclosed in a dashed box. It contains two sections:

- Contacts available to select: A list of names: Ahmed Foad, Maryam Mostafa, Osama Hashem, and Samir Abdelhady.
- Selected: A list containing the name Osama Hashem.

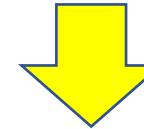

A yellow callout box with a black border and a yellow arrow points from the "Selected" list back to the "Contacts available to select" list, with the text: "The list of contacts will be decided for each user".

Below these sections are fields for "Subject" (empty) and "Message" (empty). A toolbar above the message area includes buttons for font style (T, T, T), font (Arial), font size (12pt), alignment (center, justify), and other formatting options. Below the toolbar is a large text input area for the message content.

At the bottom of the interface are three buttons: "Attach file" (underlined blue text), "Cancel", and "Send".
